FINAL CONSENT JUDGMENT AND DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

The State of Ohio (“State”) and Walgreen Co. (“Walgreens”) (together with the State, the “Parties,” and each a “Party”) have entered into a consensual resolution of the above-captioned litigation (the “Action”) pursuant to a settlement agreement dated as of December 9, 2022 (as subsequently updated) (the “Agreement”), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Agreement shall become effective by its terms upon the entry of this Final Consent Judgment (the “Consent Judgment”) by the Court without trial or adjudication of any contested issue of fact or law, and without finding or admission of wrongdoing or liability of any kind.

Preamble:

1. Each Party warrants and represents that it engaged in arm’s-length negotiations in good faith. In hereby executing the Agreement, the Parties intend to effect a good-faith settlement.
2. The State, acting through its Attorney General, has determined that the Agreement and entry of this Consent Judgment is in the public interest.
3. Walgreens denies the allegations against it and denies that it has any liability whatsoever to the State, its Subdivisions, and/or (a) any of the State’s or its Subdivisions’ departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, districts, instrumentalities of any kind and attorneys, including its Attorney General, and any person in his or her official capacity whether elected or appointed to serve any of the foregoing and any agency, person, or other entity claiming by or through any of the foregoing, (b) any public entities, public instrumentalities, public educational institutions, unincorporated districts, fire districts, irrigation districts, and other Special Districts in the State, and (c) any person or entity acting in a parens patriae, sovereign, quasi-sovereign, private attorney general, qui tam, taxpayer, or other capacity seeking relief on behalf of or generally applicable to the general public. Walgreens is entering into this Consent Judgment solely for the purpose of settlement, and nothing contained herein may be taken as or construed to be an admission or concession of any violation of law, rule, regulation, or ordinance, or of any other matter of fact or law, or of any fault, liability, or wrongdoing, all of which Walgreens denies.

4. The Parties recognize that the outcome of the Action is uncertain and a final resolution through the adversarial process likely will require protracted litigation.

5. The Parties agree to the entry of the injunctive relief terms attached as Exhibit P to the Agreement.

6. Therefore, without trial, any admission of liability or wrongdoing by Walgreens or any other Released Entities (as defined in the Agreement), without this Consent Judgment constituting evidence against or admission by anyone with respect to any issue of fact or law, and with the agreement of the Parties, the Parties now mutually consent to the entry of this Consent Judgment and agree to dismissal of the claims with prejudice pursuant to the terms of the Agreement to avoid the delay, expense, inconvenience, and uncertainty of protracted litigation.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

In consideration of the mutual promises, terms, and conditions set forth in the Agreement, the adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged by all Parties, it is agreed by and between Walgreens and the State, and adjudicated by the Court, as follows:

7. Incorporation of Preamble. The foregoing Preamble is incorporated herein and constitutes an express term of this Consent Judgment.

8. Agreement Controls. The Parties have entered into a full and final settlement of all Released Claims of Releasers (including but not limited to the State) against Walgreens and the Released Entities pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement. This Consent Judgment summarizes and gives effect to those terms. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Agreement (including its exhibits) and language in this Consent Judgment, the terms of the Agreement shall govern. Nothing in this summary document shall have the effect of expanding, diminishing, explaining, or otherwise modifying any term of the Agreement.

9. Definitions. The “Definitions” set forth in Section “I” of the Agreement are incorporated by reference into this Consent Judgment. The State is a “Settling State” within the meaning of the Agreement. Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms in this Consent Judgment shall have the same meaning given to them in the Agreement.

10. Jurisdiction. The Parties agree, and the Court finds, that the Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action and over the Parties with respect to the Action and this Consent Judgment. This Consent Judgment shall not constitute and shall not be construed or used as a waiver of any jurisdictional defense Walgreens or any other Released Entity may raise in any other proceeding.

11. Public Interest. The Court finds that the Agreement was entered into in good faith, is reasonable, is fair, and is in the public interest, and that entry of this Consent Judgment is in the public interest. By this Consent Judgment, the Agreement is hereby approved by the Court.

12. Dismissal of Claims with Prejudice. The captioned action and the State's Claims against Walgreens are hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE, subject to a retention of jurisdiction by the Court as provided herein and in the Agreement.

13. Authority to Resolve Disputes. The Court shall have authority to resolve disputes identified in Section "VI. F.1." of the Agreement, governed by the rules and procedures of the Court.

14. Means of Dividing Relevant Funds. By this Consent Judgment, the OneOhio Memorandum of Understanding, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B and as incorporated into the Agreement pursuant to Exhibit O of the Agreement, is hereby approved by the Court as the means by which relevant funds paid pursuant to the Agreement will be divided within the State, provided that any Subdivision receiving such funds executes a Subdivision Participation Agreement accepting the terms of the Agreement, including the releases provided therein.

15. Satisfaction of Condition to Effectiveness. The Parties have satisfied the Condition to Effectiveness of Agreement set forth in Section "VIII" of the Agreement and the Release set forth in Sections "X. A." and "X. F." of the Agreement, as follows:

- a. The Attorney General of the State exercised the fullest extent of his or her powers to release Walgreens and all other Released Entities from all Released Claims pursuant to the release attached hereto as Exhibit C (the "AG Release").
- b. Walgreens has determined to proceed with the Agreement.
- c. The Subdivision Participation Agreement for each Participating Subdivision in the State that has joined to date has been made available to Walgreens. As stated in the Subdivision Participation Agreement, and for the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the Subdivision Participation Agreement executed by the Participating Subdivisions is intended to modify in any way the terms of the Agreement to which the Participating Subdivisions agree. As stated in the Subdivision Participation Agreement, to the extent the terms of the executed version of the Subdivision Participation Agreement differ from the terms of the Agreement in any respect, the terms of the Agreement control.

- d. Pursuant to Section “VIII. B” of the Agreement and Paragraph 2 of the Subdivision Participation Agreement, each Litigating Subdivision in the State that has become a Participating Subdivision is dismissing with prejudice any Released Claims that it has filed against Walgreens or any of the Released Entities.

16. Release. The Parties acknowledge that the release provisions in Section “X” of the Agreement and the AG Release, which are incorporated by reference herein, are an integral part of this Consent Judgment. Pursuant to the Agreement and the AG Release and without limitation and to the maximum extent of the power of the State’s Attorney General, Walgreens and the other Released Entities are, as of the Effective Date, hereby released from any and all Released Claims of:

- a. the State and its Participating Subdivisions and any of their departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, Subdivisions, districts, instrumentalities of any kind and attorneys, including the State’s Attorney General, and any person in his or her official capacity whether elected or appointed to serve any of the foregoing, and any agency, person, or other entity claiming by or through any of the foregoing;
- b. any public entities, public instrumentalities, public educational institutions, unincorporated districts, fire districts, irrigation districts, and other Special Districts in the State, and
- c. any person or entity acting in a parens patriae, sovereign, quasi-sovereign, private attorney general, qui tam, taxpayer, or other capacity seeking relief on behalf of or generally applicable to the general public with respect to the State or any Subdivision in the State, whether or not any of them participate in the Agreement.

Pursuant to the Agreement and the AG Release and to the maximum extent of the State’s power, Walgreens and the other Released Entities are, as of the Effective Date, hereby released from any and all Released Claims of: (1) the State; (2) all past and present executive departments, state agencies, divisions, boards, commissions and instrumentalities with the regulatory authority to enforce state and federal controlled substances acts; and (3) any of the State’s past and present executive departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions and instrumentalities that have the authority to bring Claims related to Alleged Harms seeking money (including abatement and/or remediation) or revocation or suspension of a pharmaceutical distribution and/or dispensing license. For the purposes of clause “(3)” above, executive departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, and instrumentalities are those that are under the executive authority or direct control of the State’s Governor. Further, the provisions set forth in Section “X” of the Agreement are incorporated by reference into this Consent Judgment as if fully re-written herein. The Parties acknowledge, and the Court finds, that those provisions are an integral part of the Agreement and this Consent Judgment, and shall govern the rights and obligations of all participants in the settlement, including without limitation the State, Walgreens and the Released Entities.

17. Full Release of Unknown/Unanticipated Claims. The State (for itself and its Releasors) expressly waives, releases, and forever discharges Walgreens from any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States or other jurisdiction, or principle of common law, including, but not limited to, those which are a counterpart to, similar, comparable, or equivalent to § 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

§ 1542. Certain Claims Not Affected by General Release.

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party.

This is a full and final release applying to all unknown and/or unanticipated injuries, and/or damages arising out of matters addressed in the Agreement, as well as to those now known or disclosed. The State may hereafter discover facts other than or different from those which it knows, believes, or assumes to be true with respect to the Released Claims, but the State (for itself and its Releasors) expressly waived and fully, finally, and forever settled, released and discharged, through the Agreement and AG Release, any and all Released Claims that may exist as of the Effective Date but which the State does not know or suspect to exist, whether through ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or through no fault whatsoever, and which, if known, would have materially affected the State's decision to enter into the Agreement.

18. Good Faith, Farness, and Reasonableness of Releases. The Court finds that the releases are given in good faith and are effective as to all Releasors and Released Entities.

19. Costs and Fees. The Parties will bear their own costs and attorneys' fees except as otherwise provided in the Agreement. Defendant is ordered to pay all court costs of this action.

20. No Admission of Liability. Walgreens is consenting to this Consent Judgment solely for the purpose of effectuating the Agreement, this Consent Judgment is in settlement and compromise of disputed claims, and nothing contained herein may be taken as or construed to be an admission or concession of any violation of law, rule, or regulation, or of any other matter of fact or law, or of any liability or wrongdoing, all of which Walgreens expressly denies. Neither Walgreens nor any other Released Entity admits that it caused or contributed to any public nuisance, and neither Walgreens nor any other Released Entity admits any wrongdoing that was or could have been alleged by the State, its Participating Subdivisions, or any other person or entity. No part of this Consent Judgment shall constitute evidence of any liability, fault, or wrongdoing by Walgreens or any other Released Entity. The Parties acknowledge that payments made under the Agreement are not a fine, penalty, or payment in lieu thereof and are properly characterized as described in Section "V. F." of the Agreement.

21. No Waiver. This Consent Judgment is entered into based on the Agreement without trial or adjudication of any contested issue of fact or law or finding of liability of any kind. This Consent Judgment shall not be construed or used as a waiver of Walgreens' right, or any other Released Entity's right, to defend itself from, or make any arguments in, any other regulatory, governmental, private individual, or class claims or suits relating to the subject matter or terms of this Consent Judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the State may enforce the terms of this Consent Judgment as expressly provided in the Agreement.

22. No Private Right of Action. This Consent Judgment is not for use by any third party for any purpose, including submission to any court for any purpose, except Participating Subdivisions for the limited purposes set forth in Section “VI. A.” of the Agreement. Except as expressly provided in the Agreement, no portion of the Agreement or this Consent Judgment shall provide any rights to, or be enforceable by, any person or entity that is not a Settling State or Released Entity. The State shall allow Participating Subdivisions in the State to notify it of any perceived violations of the Agreement or this Consent Judgment. No Settling State, including the State, may assign or otherwise convey any right to enforce any provision of the Agreement.

23. Admissibility. This Consent Judgment shall not be admissible in any other case against Walgreens or any other Released Entity. This Consent Judgment shall not be binding on Walgreens or any other Released Entity in any respect other than in connection with the enforcement of this Consent Judgment or the Agreement in the State. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall prohibit Walgreens or any other Released Entity from entering this Consent Judgment or the Agreement into evidence in any litigation or arbitration concerning (1) Walgreens’ right to coverage under an insurance contract or (2) the enforcement of the releases provided for by the Agreement and this Consent Judgment.

24. Preservation of Privilege. Nothing contained in the Agreement or this Consent Judgment, and no act required to be performed pursuant to the Agreement or this Consent Judgment, is intended to constitute, cause, or effect any waiver (in whole or in part) of any attorney-client privilege, work product protection, patient-safety work product protection, common interest/joint defense privilege, and/or any other lawfully recognized privilege or protection and each Party agrees that it shall not make or cause to be made in any forum any assertion to the contrary.

25. Mutual Interpretation. The Parties agree and stipulate that the Agreement was negotiated on an arm’s-length basis between parties of equal bargaining power and was drafted jointly by counsel for each Party. Accordingly, the Agreement is incorporated herein by reference and shall be mutually interpreted and not construed in favor of or against any Party.

26. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the Parties for the limited purpose of the resolution of disputes identified in Section “VI. F. 1.” of the Agreement. The Court shall have jurisdiction over Participating Subdivisions in the State for the limited purposes identified in the Agreement.

27. Successors and Assigns. This Consent Judgment is binding on Walgreens’ successors and assigns.

28. Modification. This Consent Judgment shall not be modified (by the Court, by any other court, or by any other means) without the written consent of the State and Walgreens and without the approval of the Court. Modification of the Agreement shall be governed by Section “XIII. W” of the Agreement.

29. Entry on Journal. Under Rule 58 of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, upon signing this Consent Judgment by the Court, the Clerk is directed to enter it upon the journal. Within three (3) days of entering the judgment upon the journal, the Clerk is directed to serve upon all Parties notice of the judgment and its date of entry upon the journal in the manner prescribed by Civ.R. 5(B) and note the service in the appearance docket. The failure of the Clerk to serve notice does not affect the validity of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
